SENIOR GRADUATION

May 26 7:00 pm

FROM THE DESK OF SUPERINTENDENT JOHN DENNEY...

We had another great year in 2016! Our student achievement continues to rise across the grade levels and our high school again had the highest SAT scores in the area! We continue to impress visitors with our music and drama performances. When the Comets take to the fields or courts, our opponents know that they are going to be in for a tough game. Our district continues shine bright as an example of what is good about education.

Following are more details regarding our upcoming bond proposal and upcoming facility projects.

May Bond Proposal

Just about two years ago, our community approved a new sinking fund millage that expires in 2021. Currently, our 1 mill levy generates about $250,000 annually for various upgrades to our facilities. While we have been able to accomplish several wonderful things with this money, there have been many needs that we have not been able to address. Sinking funds have not been able to be used to purchase technology or equipment in the past. During the last moments of their 2016 legislative session, our lawmakers did change the rules regarding what sinking fund money can be spent on; they made it allowable to spend revenues on certain forms of technology and security upgrades. The changes had been floating around the legislature for a couple of years and we had been hopeful that the proposal would become law so that we could address more of our needs. Unfortunately, in its final version, the law still does not allow school districts to use sinking fund money to purchase, replace or upgrade phone systems. Since the district has been considering replacing the phone system for some time, we looked for another option to finance that project.

That option came in the form of a $250,000 bond proposal which will be placed on the May 2, 2017 ballot. The spending rules of a bond are much different than those of our sinking fund. While the money cannot be spent on any personnel related expense, we can purchase a much wider range of items. If approved by the voters, the district would be able to purchase and install a brand new phone system, upgrade all of our network switches, replace our security camera systems across the district, replace the PA system in both the high school and middle school, and have around $100,000 to use on other equipment, technology and security items. By law, the district would have up to three years to spend all of the proceeds from the bond. This would enable us to take our time to identify the best ways to use the remaining funds.

After passing the resolution to authorize the bond request during their February 2, 2017 meeting, the members of the Hanover-Horton School District's Board of Education passed another resolution to make it clear to everyone that, if the bond proposal passes, the district will only levy a total of 1 mill between the sinking fund millage and this bond. Early estimates indicate that it will take approximately .25 mill to pay off the bond debt in five years. Therefore, the district would levy .25 mill for the bond plus .75 mill for the sinking fund millage. Consequently, there would be no tax increase to the taxpayers with the passage of this bond. As a district, we are committed to holding the line at 1 mill. The district would utilize the same amount of tax revenue that we have been collecting for the past ten years on a wider range of projects, including security and technology upgrades.

Facility Projects

We have been very fortunate to have our sinking fund for the past several years. With the additional revenues, we have been able to upgrade our mechanicals throughout the district, expand parking, build a new weight room, create an amazing playground, and so many other wonderful projects. I believe that is it important to let all of you know what our plans are for this summer.

Our most noticeable project will likely be the construction of a new entryway for the middle school. This will be a bit smaller than the one recently added for the elementary school, but will serve a very similar purpose. We also plan to continue our multi-year electrical upgrade project by burying the sections of our primary power supply that are original to our complex. Another project will be to utilize the Consumer's Energy rebate program and begin replace our fluorescent lighting with LED lighting. Early estimates indicate that the upgrade would pay for itself in about two years.

There will also be a few other small projects worked in as time allows. As the summer approaches, we will continue to adjust our project list in order to make the most impact for our district while being good stewards of the resources.

Thank you

Our community is absolutely amazing! I would like to take this opportunity to share yet another example with you. I was approached a couple of years ago with a request to purchase and install handrails for the high school gym. While they would have been great to have, the rails were going to cost us $20,000 and would have been a general fund purchase. When I was approached this year, I was asked if I would be willing to accept and install new handrails if they were donated. It didn't take me long to say yes.

Hanover Horton National Junior Honor Society

The Hanover-Horton National Junior Honor Society consists of 11 eighth grade students who were selected by an application and upon recommendation of their teachers. These students were chosen based upon the four pillars of NJHS – scholarship, service, leadership, and character. These members meet at least monthly to plan service projects and discuss ways to help make our school and community better.

While members have helped out at athletic events, the Humane Society, Senior Citizen homes, and more, our last major project was supporting the Heavenly Hats Organization. This non-profit was first started by a 10 year old who hoped to provide hats to any and all cancer patients. The organization has since grown and now provides millions of hats to those in need. The HH NJHS helped by sponsoring a hat day. Students paid one dollar to wear a hat and all proceeds then went to Heavenly Hats. Students raised 150 dollars!

More projects will soon follow. This is a great group of students who have a very big heart for the community and the world around them.

Most Teens Don't

Our middle school chapter of Most Teens Don't is off to a great start this year. They have made posters that show the dangers of drug, alcohol, and tobacco use, that are up around the middle school. There was also a banner posted at lunch for students to post what they were "above the influence" of, such as bullying, smoking, drugs, etc. For the "Great American Smoke Out" there was a floor poster that showed the amount of tar that would be in a person's lungs after smoking for two years. Members also walked in the Jackson Christmas Parade to show support for Most Teens Don't. Two students traveled to Jackson College to speak and take part in the Jackson County Drug Summit. In January we will be headed to a country wide meeting where students will have the opportunity to film and create a TV and Radio advertisement.

A special thank you to Mr. Dick Greiner for being the coordinator of this project. He went to Lomar and asked them if they would fabricate the handrails and to Alro Steel to ask them if they would donate the materials. Thankfully, both businesses said yes! Larry's Garage also stepped in to help with some needed pipe bending. As a result of their donations of time, labor and materials, our high school gym now has a beautiful set of handrails. Thank you!

Please feel free to contact me if you have any questions or concerns about our district.

Hanover-Horton Leo Club

The Hanover Horton Leo club participated in spreading Christmas cheer to two area retirement communities. Loaded with Christmas cards and candy, The Hanover Horton Area Lions provided three drivers to transport the Leos. The Leos split into two groups and visited the Spring Arbor Assisted Living Center in Spring Arbor and Countryside Retirement Community in Jackson. The residents were very appreciative and so sweet as they were hugged and they thanked the Leos for the visitation with cards and candy!

Hanover-Horton Theatre Company

The Hanover-Horton Theatre Company has had a successful and busy year to date! In October, 12 students attended Eastern Michigan University's Drama Day. As the only representatives from Jackson County, students attended workshops that helped them grow as actors, technicians and directors. Sessions on stage combat, makeup: scars and bruises, props, improvisation, lighting, beginning directing, stage accents, and musical theatre – dance were all popular choices. Students were then treated to a college production of Macbeth.

A dedicated group of students has also worked with the elementary social studies curriculum by putting on core democratic values plays for the students. These actors give up part of their Friday to entertain young students and help them grow.

Our first community play, The Brothers Grimm Spectaculathon, was met with much success. In this laugh-a-minute comedy, 29 students attempted to put on all 209 of the Brothers Grimm fairy tales. The audience was impressed with the costumes and characterization of our students. We also served concessions and had a drawing for a great gift basket.

Please support our performing arts program by joining us at our second community play, March 23 and 24 at 7:00 p.m. Our students will be putting on Mutually Assured Destruction, a play about the relationship between siblings throughout the year. It's sure to be another crowd pleaser!

Eighth Grade Gets Kindles

Eighth-grade students in Mrs. Scheese's English classes have some new technology this year. The Jackson Community Foundation funded a set of Kindle Tablets for her classroom, which has opened up a lot of opportunities for students. Students have used the Kindles for research, grammar practice, reading and much more. They are currently reading A Christmas Carol on their Kindles and looking forward to using them for other books as well. The Kindles have been a welcome addition to the classroom!

Community Service Group

On November 30th Hanover-Horton hosted its first blood drive of the year! We are proud to partner with The American Red Cross every year in these life-saving drives. It takes a lot of work, acquiring appointments, setting up and tearing down as well as providing food and drinks for the donors. Thanks to our students, staff and community members, we had a very successful event and are preparing for our final one of the school year scheduled for April 27th. Anyone interested in donating blood can contact our high school office at 563 -0101.

High School Health Class

Marriage Matters Jackson made a stop in Mr. Mortimer's health classes at Hanover-Horton High school last month! Thanks to a grant from the Hanover-Horton Education Fund, Amy Palletier from MMJ presented a teen dating program called Pick a Partner, how to avoid falling for a jerk or jerkette! Amy presented her program in a fun, interactive way all while sending the message to teens about how their values and beliefs should play an important part in developing relationships with their peers, how our relationships with friends and families affect how we look at other relationships and discussed warning signs of unhealthy relationships. We were very excited to bring this program to our school and look forward to them presenting again during this second semester!

Mrs. Swihart's 5th Grade Class

Mrs. Swihart taught her 5th graders a painting lesson to create a canvas present for the kids to give their parents this holiday season. Fun with art in the classroom!

Community Service Club

On Friday December 16th our Hanover-Horton Community Service club spread warmth and cheer when we delivered 100 fleece lap blankets to the residents of Ridgecrest Nursing facility! The colorful, warm blankets brought cheer to the residents who also enjoyed spending time chatting with our teens. The material was purchased with the help of a grant from the Academic Service Learning fund and an earlier donation from the Lutheran Church of the Lakes. The club members spent several hours making them. Several students were able to deliver them to the residents and enjoyed watching the resident's reaction to their handmade gifts!
